

Meghan S. Gibbs

(256) 682-6011, mgibbstutoring@gmail.com

Tutoring is offered in the following mathematics and science courses, from middle and high school levels, to college-level classes:

Pre-Algebra
Algebra I & II
Geometry
Trigonometry
Pre-Calculus
Calculus A

Physical Science
Chemistry I & II
Physics
Astronomy

EDUCATION: Bachelor of Science in Physics with a Mathematics minor
University of Alabama in Huntsville
G.P.A.= 3.94, Graduated with Honors, Summa Cum Laude

QUALIFICATIONS: Professional tutoring services offered to middle school, high school, and college students since 2005.
Teaching services also offered to home-schooled students in various math and science courses.

EXPERIENCE: Mathematics and Science Tutor – Fall semester of 2005 to present

- Assisted numerous students from across Madison County with daily concepts, homework, and test preparation at the middle school, high school, and college levels
- Prepared high school juniors and seniors for college entrance exams
- Prepared high school students for the Alabama High School Graduation Exams

Home School Teacher/Tutor – 2003/2004 and 2008/2009 school years

- Taught a physical science class to home-schooled students in 8th and 9th grades; taught physical science, astronomy, and Algebra I to a home-schooled student in 9th grade
- Prepared and performed numerous laboratory experiments that accompanied the physical science and astronomy curricula
- Assisted home-schooled students with their mathematics and science requirements for their specific cover schools

REFERENCES: Available upon request

THIS ORGANIZATION AND ITS ACTIVITIES ARE NOT RELATED TO OR SPONSORED BY THE MANSFIELD INDEPENDENT SCHOOL DISTRICT.